

N. Y. SENATORSHIP SEEMS SETTLED

Conference at Judge Taft's Cottage at Hot Springs Selected Root to Succeed Platt.

COULD BE HEAD OF CABINET

President-Elect Says He's Pre-eminently a Statesman, With Faculty For Future Planning.

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 18.—There was a conference at the Taft cottage here this afternoon on New York politics, general political affairs and especially regarding persons and measures pertaining to the next administration. The conferees were President-elect Taft, Vice Presidents-elect Tamm and William Ward, national Republican committee-man from New York.

Mr. Taft arrived from Cincinnati this morning and the vice-president-elect and Mr. Ward from the east tonight. Mr. Sherman will stop in Washington tomorrow and in Philadelphia before returning to New York.

While no one to the conference wishes to be quoted on the subject, it may be stated as the opinion of all that Secy. Root will be the successor to the secretary of state.

"I was a great sufferer from female troubles, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health in three months, after my physician declared that an operation was absolutely necessary."

Mrs. Alvina Sperling, of 154 Cleburne Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I suffered from female trouble and much inflammation. Two of the best doctors in Chicago decided that an operation was necessary to save my life. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely cured me without an operation."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has so successfully cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulence, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

that Lydia had sought to keep persons from entering upon the government lands enclosed by his road. The plaintiff is a young jail or five of $1000. Lydia's attorneys announced that they would ask for a new trial.

MORRIS HAAS' FUNERAL. Services Were Brief. According to Improved Order of Red Men Ritual.

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Brief funeral services, according to the ritual of the Improved Order of Red Men, were held today over the remains of Morris Haas, 52, who died yesterday after shooting Friends J. Henay. A score of friends and relatives were present at the former residence of Haas on Mc-Alister street. The remains were escorted by a squad of mounted police to the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

HE "GOT EVEN." Butte, Mont., Nov. 18.—Mike Butler, a member of the Butte fire department, was arrested today and charged with dynamiting the Jewel saloon, in the red-light district last night. The proprietor of the place says Butler declared, when pressed for payment of a bar bill, that he "would get even."

A BROKEN BACK. Lewiston, Mont., Nov. 18.—After having waited several weeks for some things of three young men who left on a hunting trip early last month two days previous to their return, some of their friends organized a searching party and yesterday left for the Brecks of the Missouri, where the hunters stated they had intended to go when they left home. Since they left nothing had been seen or heard from them and their friends are worried lest they be lost in the snow. The searching party is a large one and the members are well equipped.

BIDEGOOD ARRESTED. Butte, Mont., Nov. 18.—Mike Butler, a member of the Butte fire department, was arrested today and charged with dynamiting the Jewel saloon, in the red-light district last night. The proprietor of the place says Butler declared, when pressed for payment of a bar bill, that he "would get even."

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.

It was a general talk regarding many matters and persons, just such talks as I desire and expect to have with the party leaders and those men who had to do with the campaign, and as a result of which in the end I shall be able to offer the public many explanations. There was nothing definite now nor was the discussion of a character that its publicity would be either interesting or opportune."

President-elect Taft tonight sent a telegram extending his hearty congratulations to him through Gov. Ma-
ginnis on the outcome and result of the recent election there.

Judge Taft expressed doubt tonight that he would go to Cuba to witness the withdrawal of the American and the inauguration of the Cuban administration, but said he would go if invited.